MARKING A DAY OF HOPE

(Ms. JACKSON LEE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Ms. JACKSON LEE. Madam Speaker, first of all, I want to, as a member of the Judiciary Committee, associate myself with the Missing Persons and Unidentified Remains Act of 2019, a very vital act for dealing with families who have lost loved ones, as well as the Crisis Stabilization and Community Reentry Act, S. 3312, which deals with helping people who are incarcerated adjust back to the community.

I believe that we had a day of hope yesterday in Houston and around the world. In fact, it was not only yesterday, but it was Monday. That is when the first vaccines began to come to the Nation.

I went to the public hospital system, and I became part of UPS—that is, Pfizer vaccines that I was able to lift at the Lyndon Baines Johnson Hospital and then walk that vaccine to the pharmacy so that people would have hope. Then, I went to Ben Taub Hospital—the public health system, again—and watched people from all backgrounds get vaccinated.

This is a day of hope. We must continue, but we must continue to walk carefully. We must continue to stay distant, get testing, and wear our masks.

There is hope. I am delighted to have been able to be there to say to our constituents that there is hope, Madam Speaker.

JUSTICE FOR HARMONY ALLEN

(Mr. MAST asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. MAST. Madam Speaker, Harmony Allen is a veteran who was raped by her Air Force instructor while serving our country.

Madam Speaker, I rise today to celebrate justice for Harmony Allen.

Now, for two decades, Harmony has been fighting for justice. Despite being convicted in 2017, her rapist was set free on a misconstrued technicality after the Nation's highest military court disregarded Congress' intent and incorrectly applied a 5-year statute of limitations on Harmony's case.

To fix this loophole, I introduced Harmony's Law to ensure that convicted rapists are held accountable. I also worked with the Solicitor General in the Supreme Court to hear Harmony's case and overturn this massive miscarriage of justice.

Madam Speaker, last week, the Supreme Court ruled unanimously in Harmony Allen's favor. The Court's 8-0 decision is a monumental one, and it serves a justice to Harmony that was long overdue. It also prevents the potential early release of hundreds of convicted rapists, making this a victory for all victims of military sexual assault.

LEGISLATIVE ACTIVITIES ON BEHALF OF GEORGIA'S FIFTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

(Mr. HALL asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. HALL. Madam Speaker, I rise to alert the Chamber to three legislative activities that I am pursuing on behalf of Georgia's Fifth Congressional District and a transportation and infrastructure bill that I will be introducing later this week.

The first will seek to eliminate qualified immunity in police misconduct cases. The second piece of legislation is a constitutional amendment that concerns forced labor. The third piece of legislation is one that would expunge all records of nonviolent offenders impacted by the war on drugs and other various crime bills for any State and local government that is the recipient of Federal crime dollars.

Later this week, I will be introducing legislation to commission a study on a vital transportation corridor in Georgia, which would connect Campbellton Road to the businesses that are right to make greater metro Atlanta their home.

Madam Speaker, I encourage my colleagues to support my pieces of legislation and this project.

RECOGNIZING COHO BREWING COMPANY

(Mr. VAN DREW asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. VAN DREW. Madam Speaker, I would like to recognize Coho Brewing Company in Cape May Court House in south Jersey. Coho was founded by Karen Buckingham in January 2019, inspired by her passion for craft beer.

The brewery's interior design is inspired by all our law enforcement and first responders. Karen hosted fundraisers and cornhole tournaments to raise money for the State police and K-9 units. Each of Coho's beer cans has a blue line in honor of our first responders. She has also turned part of her tasting room into a brew-tique, which gives clothes and goods to those in need.

Madam Speaker, I thank Karen for all she does for the south Jersey community and for our first responders,

God bless Karen, God bless America, and God bless our first responders.

RECOGNIZING DR. PHIL ROE

(Mr. WENSTRUP asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. WENSTRUP. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the impressive career of my good friend, Dr. PHIL ROE, who is retiring at the end of this Congress.

A veteran himself, Dr. ROE served honorably as chairman and ranking member on the Veterans' Affairs Committee, where he worked on preventing veteran suicide, increasing patient access to care, and providing agency accountability.

Dr. ROE has been a strong leader of our GOP Doctors Caucus, providing strong insight, a steady hand, and a lot of patience as we have debated critical legislation affecting patients and providers.

Over the years, I have been blessed enough to call Dr. ROE a dear friend. He showed me what life in rural Tennessee was like; he has regaled us with his guitar skills; he has made us laugh; and he has been a source of wisdom for all of us.

It has also been a pleasure to get to know his beloved wife, Clarinda, who I know is looking forward to having him around more often.

I know that I can speak on behalf of all of my colleagues when I say thank you for your service, PHIL. Good luck in retirement, and God bless you.

IN RECOGNITION OF SENATOR LAMAR ALEXANDER

(Mr. BURCHETT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. BURCHETT. Madam Speaker, I rise today in recognition of Senator LAMAR ALEXANDER, who is retiring from the United States Senate after 18 years in office. My friend, Senator ALEXANDER, has led a strong career representing Tennesseans at the State and Federal levels.

Senator ALEXANDER was Governor of Tennessee from 1979 to 1987. As Governor, he revamped the economy by cutting regulations to attract new businesses and jobs and reformed our public education curriculum.

Following two terms as Governor, Senator ALEXANDER was president of the University of Tennessee and served as Secretary of Education in President George Herbert Walker Bush's administration. He returned to elected office in 2002, winning Tennessee's open U.S. Senate seat.

In Congress, Senator ALEXANDER demonstrated strong leadership and legislated in the best interests of all Tennesseans. Among his many achievements are the SUPPORT Act, comprehensive legislation to fight the opioid epidemic, and, as of late, the Great American Outdoors Act, which will preserve the Smokies and other national parks for years to come.

Senator ALEXANDER and I are fond of the same quote from our friend Alex Haley: "Find the good and praise it."

There is a lot of good in LAMAR ALEXANDER, and I thank him for his many years of service.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mrs. MCBATH). Members are reminded to put on their masks.

AMERICA'S CONFIDENCE IN OUR ELECTORAL SYSTEM

(Mr. LAMALFA asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. LAMALFA. Madam Speaker, America's confidence in our electoral system has suffered an egregious blow this cycle. Of the many credible concerns surrounding this year's process, Dominion voting machines have neared the top of the list. From crashing during a recount in Georgia to several errors in Antrim County, Michigan, it is clear that Dominion's authority on vote counting is in question. There needs to be a fully independent audit of Dominion's voting machines.

No, this is not an attempt to overturn an election; this is about making sure, moving forward, all Americans have faith in our elections, whether it is the constitutional actions setting election process in place or transparency in the tabulation of the vote.

Madam Speaker, my Republican colleagues and I have stressed that every legal vote must be counted, but we must also ensure those who count our votes, whether a person or a machine, are also fully complying with the law.

CONTINUATION OF THE NATIONAL EMERGENCY WITH RESPECT TO SERIOUS HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSE AND CORRUPTION—MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES (H. DOC. NO. 116-173)

The SPEAKER pro tempore laid before the House the following message from the President of the United States; which was read and, together with the accompanying papers, referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs and ordered to be printed:

To the Congress of the United States:

Section 202(d) of the National Emergencies Act (50 U.S.C. 1622(d)) provides for the automatic termination of a national emergency unless, within 90 days before the anniversary date of its declaration, the President publishes in the Federal Register and transmits to the Congress a notice stating that the emergency is to continue in effect beyond the anniversary date. In accordance with this provision, I have sent to the Federal Register for publication the enclosed notice stating that the national emergency declared in Executive Order 13818 of December 20, 2017, is to continue in effect beyond December 20, 2020.

The prevalence and severity of human rights abuse and corruption that have their source, in whole or in substantial part, outside the United States, continue to threaten the stability of international political and economic systems. Human rights abuse and corruption undermine the values that form an essential foundation of stable, secure, and functioning societies; have devastating impacts on individuals; weaken democratic institutions; degrade the rule of law; perpetuate violent conflicts; facilitate the activities of dangerous persons; undermine economic markets; and continue to pose an unusual and extraordinary threat to the national security, foreign policy, and economy of the United States. Therefore, I have determined that it is necessary to continue the national emergency declared in Executive Order 13818 with respect to serious human rights abuse and corruption.

DONALD J. TRUMP.

THE WHITE HOUSE, December 16, 2020.

NEW HOLLAND AGRICULTURE 125TH ANNIVERSARY

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the Speaker's announced policy of January 3, 2019, the Chair recognizes the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. SMUCKER) for 30 minutes.

Mr. SMUCKER. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor a local business in my congressional district and congratulate them as they celebrate their 125th anniversary this year.

To my constituents in the 11th District, when they hear the words "New Holland," they often think of a great borough with about 6,000 residents located in Eastern Lancaster County. But when others across the globe hear the words "New Holland," it often means to them high quality, agricultural machinery.

New Holland Agriculture, which is a brand of CNH Industrial, was founded 125 years ago in New Holland, Pennsylvania, by a gentleman named Abe Zimmerman. What Mr. Zimmerman began as a small machine shop in 1895 would eventually grow to become a global leader in agricultural equipment, from tractors to harvesting.

The company became known for technological innovations, particularly
